

WARZONE LAN CENTER Policy

1. All players are required to have a signed and dated WarZone User Agreement on file. Players under the age of 18 are required to have the WarZone User Agreement signed and dated by a parent or guardian. We reserve the right to verify any information provided on the form. Customers are responsible for the accuracy of the information provided.
2. All players are required to abide by the Game Rating Guidelines of the ESRB (Electronic Software Ratings Board). WarZone is not liable for any exposure to any material, whether willful or inadvertent. Customers agree to hold WarZone harmless from any and all liability resulting from willful or inadvertent exposure to such material.
3. All play is at your own risk. There are potential risks of medical problems including carpal tunnel syndrome (resulting from using input devices such as controllers, keyboards or a mouse) and seizure (resulting from viewing images on a TV or computer monitor).
4. Membership and prepaid or account hours are non-refundable. Prices are subject to change at any time. Package or combo hours are subject to the terms and conditions at time of purchase. If a customer or player is banned from our facility for any reason, customer agrees to account closure and forfeiture of any remaining balance.

WarZone Code of Conduct

All customers of WarZone Game Center are required to comply with this Code of Conduct.

1. Show Respect for others.

All users are expected to treat other players, visitors, guests and employees with respect. Aggressive behavior will not be tolerated under any circumstance. Customers who physically, verbally or sexually threaten or assault any customer or employee of WarZone, will be BANNED from using the facility and their actions will be reported to police if warranted. If your behavior is deemed unacceptable for any reason, you will be asked to leave for the remainder of the business day, if you are asked to leave during a pre-paid event such as, but not limited to, Tournaments, Lock-Ins or party events, any fees paid to participate in that event will be forfeited.

2. Watch your language.

Foul, obscene language and cursing is not allowed within the facility. Video games are a competitive activity and we understand that a "slip of the tongue" may happen however, if foul language is used excessively, you, at the discretion of the staff, will be asked to leave the facility.

3. Take care of the equipment.

Players assume responsibility for the equipment they are using. It is assumed that the equipment is in working condition and must be returned in working condition. If the equipment is not in perfect working condition when play begins, it is your responsibility to inform the staff and request a replacement within 10 minutes. Any equipment returned in less than perfect working condition will require that your account be charged the current replacement value and your account be locked until this is paid. Users will be held responsible for any damage they cause directly or indirectly to any WarZone property. This includes but is not limited to Audio, Video, Computers and, all other electronic equipment, Furniture, Fixtures, and any element of the structure. WarZone reserves the right to pursue repayment by any means possible.

4. You are an individual and should use a single account.

Game play requires the creation of a single user account. Multiple user accounts for the purpose of exploiting new member promotions and/or coupons is not allowed. If a single user proves to have initiated multiple user accounts, we reserve the right to cancel all accounts. Account sharing is not allowed. Each user is required to have an individual account. Only one user is allowed per account and players are responsible for the security of their own account. It is strongly recommended that you never share your account number with anyone.

5. Play at your own risk.

Under no circumstances will WarZone, its parent, employees, affiliates, or other third parties related to facility be held liable for any damages whatsoever. This includes, but is not limited to direct, indirect, incidental, punitive or consequential damages arising out of the use of this facility.

6. Keep it Clean.

You are required to pick up after yourself. Under no circumstances will any customer be allowed to enter WarZone Game Center under the influence or in the possession of drugs or alcohol. The mission of WarZone Game Center is to provide a safe, comfortable, and fun experience for gamers of all ages. Our facility fosters social interaction and fun and friendly competition in a safe, controlled, alcohol and drug free environment. All players are required to and agree to abide by the WarZone Policy and WarZone Code of Conduct or will be asked to leave at the discretion of the staff.

7. Say "Cheese".

From time to time we will photograph or tape WarZone Gaming Center events or general game play to use in advertising, promotional materials or our website. By accepting these rules you permit the use and display of said photographs/images in any publication, multimedia production, display, advertisement or world-wide web publication. You also agree that we may use your likeness and you release and forever discharge WarZone Gaming Center, its agents, officers and employees from any and all claims and demands arising out of or in connection with the use of said photographs/images, including but not limited to, any claims for invasion of privacy or defamation.

6. NO HACKING OUR MACHINES OR GAMES.

This includes downloading anything from the internet without our permission or attempting to install or update anything on our machines. If you come across an update, please let us know and we'll take care of it.
